

Harleston Information Plus are looking for new Trustees to join the Board.

Are you passionate about making a real difference in your community? We're looking for committed and motivated individuals to join our Board of Trustees and help shape the future of our organisation.

About HIP Charity

Our aim is to improve the quality of life for people living in Harleston and surrounding areas by providing access to services, support, information and activities not otherwise available locally.

About the Role

As a Trustee of HIP you will play a vital role in ensuring the Charity is well-run, sustainable, and delivers maximum benefits for our community.

Your Key Responsibilities as a trustee

- Uphold and promote our charitable objectives and values
- Make strategic decisions to help us deliver our mission effectively
- Ensure we comply with charity and company law
- Oversee financial management and ensure long-term sustainability
- Support and guide the staff in a constructive manner
- Promote the wellbeing of our employees, volunteers and service users

Who We're Looking For

We welcome applications from people of all backgrounds and walks of life. Previous trustee experience is not required, what matters most is your commitment to our community, and your willingness to take part in delivering on all our key responsibilities.

What You'll Gain

- A meaningful way to drive real change in our community
- The chance to work with an experienced and supportive team
- New skills, and board-level experience to enhance your own development
- A fulfilling volunteer role that fits around your existing commitments

How to Apply

To express your interest, please write to the Chair of Trustees: chair@harleston-norfolk.org.uk outlining why you'd like to become a Trustee and what you'd bring to the Board.
